Basic Course in Medical Education (BCME) Report:

विषम रिथतियों में धैर्य बनाये रखना अच्छे चिकित्सक की पहचान : मुरारी

Workshop Details

Date: $22^{n\overline{d}}$ and 24^{th} July

Venue: Netaji Subhas Medical College and Hospital (NSMCH), Bihta, Patna

Duration: 3 days

Participants: 30 Professors and Assistant Professor from over 30 departments

Objectives

> To enhance the quality of medical education

> To prepare competent Indian medical graduates as per National Medical Commission (NMC) guidelines

To focus on both medical knowledge and moral values

Key Takeaways

- > Scientific form of teaching and learning for students.
- > Trained doctors to increase the quality of medical education.
- Emphasis on moral values along with medical knowledge.

Speakers

- ➤ Mr. Krishna Murari, Managing Director
- > Dr. Ashok Sharan, College Principal
- > Dr. Namrata Kumari, Head of Microbiology Department, IGMs Patna.

Outcome

Participants gained insights into the new instructions laid down by the National Medical Commission Enhanced understanding of the importance of moral values in medical education Equipped with skills to prepare competent Indian medical graduates

Recommendations

Conduct regular workshops to update faculty members on the latest NMC guidelines Incorporate moral values and ethics into the medical curriculum Encourage continuous professional development for faculty members

Conclusion

The BCME workshop was a successful initiative to enhance the quality of medical education. The participants gained valuable insights into the new NMC guidelines and the importance of moral values in medical education. The workshop's outcome will contribute to preparing competent Indian medical graduates.

