Kindly provide some extracurricular activities and Industrial visits. 2. Teachers must use real-world examples to illustrate the subjects. More interactive teaching techniques should be used, along with discussions of emerging technologies and industry trends that are never covered in college. 3. A lot of activities should be provided rather than just assignments, and real-world examples should be provided rather than concentrating solely on finishing sections. 4. Use a variety of teaching methods such as visual aids, group discussions, and real-life examples to cater to different learning styles. 5. Provide us more short tricks and tips, to understand the content better and tell us some strategies, key points on how to remember the content and answers.
